

Licensed Avionics Technician - AME "E"

Full-time, Calgary - AB

Qualifications

- The successful candidate will be a graduate of an approved Transport Canada Aircraft Maintenance Avionics course and/or hold a valid AME license Category E
- Must be able to obtain and retain a Transport Canada Airport Pass (RAIC)
- Eligibility for Controlled Goods Program (security) considered an asset
- Ability to work under pressure and demonstrate strong organizational skills
- Mechanical aptitude and ability to work safely with basic hand tools
- Understand technical manuals, drawings and blueprints
- Positive attitude and strong work ethic
- Able to work effectively independently and as part of a team
- Ability to take direction and follow instructions.

Responsibilities

- Report to various Project Managers, and directly to the Avionics Manager on issues affecting the serviceability of aircraft
- Ensure aircraft are maintained in accordance with company and Transport Canada Regulations and quality standards
- Accurate completion of all paperwork in accordance with published procedures, manuals and documentation.
- Maintain the work area in a neat and tidy condition
- Attend training courses as directed by the company
- Performing installations of avionics equipment and systems on aircraft
- Troubleshooting and repairing aircraft discrepancies in compliance with manufacturer's standards to expedite return to flight status
- Program and configure various products

Experience:

- Aircraft Avionics: 4 years (Preferred)

If you are interested in this position please apply by sending your resume to Luba Jovicic ljovicic@eaglecopters.com